

Baseball Multiplication with Tens

The rules for this game are the same as for the basic game except that a 1 is worth 10, a 2 is worth 20, and so on. If you need to review the rules, see the Student Reference Book, pages 274 and 275.

Example: If you roll a 4 and a 6, multiply 40×60 .

Scoreboard

Inning	1	2	3	4	5	6	7
Team 1
Team 2

Runs and Outs Table

Team 1		Team 2
Runs	Outs	Runs	Outs

Scoring Chart

3,600	= Home run (score a run)
2,600–3,500	= Triple (go to 3rd base)
1,600–2,500	= Double (go to 2nd base)
600–1,500	= Single (go to 1st base)
500 or less	= Out (record an out)